

Community Needs Assessment Tip Sheet #1

Well planned and executed Focus Group meetings are critical to creating a high quality community assessment. Focus groups help identify issues and concerns facing families and individuals related to health, culture, language, staffing & workforce, transportation, income or other barriers.

